LAWRENCE, KANSAS MAN SENTENCED ON GUN AND DRUG CHARGES

KANSAS CITY, Kan. – United States Attorney Eric Melgren announced that George W. Warren, 23, Lawrence, Kansas, was sentenced today by U.S. District Judge Kathryn H. Vratil to nine years and seven months in federal prison, without parole, to be followed by eight years of supervised release.

Melgren said that Warren entered a guilty plea on March 8, 2004, to two counts of being a felon in possession of a firearm and one count of possession with the intent to distribute crack cocaine within 1,000 feet of an elementary school.

Melgren said that Warren admitted at his plea that on January 19, 2002, Lawrence Police Department officers executed a search warrant at his residence in Lawrence, Kansas, and found a handgun and a shotgun. Warren further admitted that on September 16, 2003, he was stopped by the Lawrence Police Department for a traffic violation and officers found a loaded handgun under the front passenger's seat of his vehicle. Warren admitted that he had previously been convicted of a felony in Douglas County District Court in 2001 and knew that it was unlawful for him to own or possess firearms. Warren admitted that on February 6, 2003, he was a passenger in a vehicle that was stopped by the Lawrence Police Department, within 1,000 feet of East Heights Elementary School, and officers found approximately 13.08 grams (approximately .46 gram) of crack cocaine on his person. Warren further admitted that he planned to distribute the crack cocaine.

Melgren commended the excellent work of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives and the Lawrence Police Department in this investigation and Assistant U.S. Attorney Terra Morehead in this prosecution.
